Annyeonghaseyo, Kuching!

"Dream Happy" is an overseas volunteer programme conducted by The Salvation Army South Korea in 2012. Since 2013, it has grown into an international social contribution programme with the kind sponsorship of Hyundai Marine & Fire Insurance.

The 12th Teen Volunteer Corps took place in Kuching in the month of August, and for 5 days, the youths had the opportunity to spend time with Kuchingites in need. They visited Kampung Kudei, a village within the city with many families living under the poverty line, and also spent time with the children at The Salvation Army Kuching Children's Care Centre.

Gamsahabnida 감사합니다 (thank you) to The Salvation Army South Korea, Hyundai Marine & Fire Insurance and the participating youths for making this programme an unforgettable one.
